Miscellaneous

Millionaire's Night

I have offered to 'spear-head' one of our important money raising events - 'The Millionaire's Night'. I respectfully ask all members to keep clear to attend when booking any holidays etc - our members are diminishing so we need 'all hands on deck' so to speak. The date is Saturday 20th January 2018 - please make a diary entry now for next year!

I will be asking a few members to be part of my team, as Rtn Geoff has done for the VVR - my aim is to glamorize and encourage ticket sales which will mean we raise more money to distribute locally! The plan is to hold the first meeting in September an early start to the organising is essential!

I look forward to all members help in this event - much appreciated - Rtn Anne

Oaks Colliery Disaster Talk

I have booked Joan and Prof Mel Jones who are no strangers to our club to give us a talk on a remarkably interesting subject close to many hearts on 19th March 2018. This talk will explore evidence relating to the Oaks Colliery disaster of 1866 (and the death of the rescuer, Parkin Jeffcock of Cowley Manor and the building of the new church at Mortomley in his memory) the Westwood pit explosion, the Westwood Riots etc.

Please invite Inner Wheel Ladies, Friends of Rotary, wives, husbands, partners and friends - a night of fellowship and friendship - make a diary entry! - Rtn Anne

POLIO HITS BIG SCREEN

An inspirational true story of polio, paralysis and love without limits is hitting the big screens this month.

Breathe follows adventurous and charismatic Robin Cavendish (Andrew Garfield), who has his whole life ahead of him when he is paralysed by polio whilst in Africa.

The film is released nationwide on Friday 27th November, giving Rotary clubs chance to engage with their local cinema to promote Rotary's efforts to eradicate polio.

Why not see if you can set up a Rotary stand in the foyer, leave promotional materials on front desks, or even sell crocus button holes to raise awareness among movie-goers of Rotary's pioneering role in polio eradication.

There will still be chance to see the film before general release at a number of Rotary Charity screenings taking place until 24th October. Click on the following links for more details:

REMEMBER THE 4-WAY TEST

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?

Who Am I

1. I was born on 2nd August, 1932 in either Ireland or Leeds, the son of a Scottish Nurse and an Irish metal plater, footballer and racecourse bookie. When I was 1 year old, my family began a tour of racecourses in Northern England that lasted 5 years. When the war started, I was evacuated from Leeds, and went to a Catholic school for 7-8 years.

2. When I left school, I got a job as a trainee journalist, until I was called up for National Service with the Royal Navy as a signaller. When I was asked by an officer if there was anything I wanted to do, I replied that I wanted to try being a poet or an actor. I attended RADA from 1952-54, on a scholarship after being rejected by a theatre school in Dublin because I could speak the Irish language. Whilst there, I was in the same class as Albert Finney and Alan Bates amongst others.
3. I began working in the theatre, becoming recognised as a Shakespearean actor before making my TV debut in 1954. I first appeared in film in 1959 in "The Day they robbed the Bank of England". Three year's later, I got my big break when I played the lead role in "Lawrence of Arabia". This role gained me the first of my 8 nominations for an Academy Award. I became one of a number of actors to be nominated for and Oscar for playing the same role in two films when I played Henry II in "Becket" (1964) and "The Lion in Winter" (1968). By this time, I was married to the actress Sian Phillips, with whom I had two daughters.
4. In 1969, I played the title role in a film musical adaptation of "Goodbye Mr Chips" opposite Petula Clark. I achieved a lifetime ambition the following year when I appeared in Samuel Beckett's "Waiting for Godot" at the Dublin Abbey Theatre. I had surgery in 1976, having been diagnosed with Stomach cancer, and as a result, suffered from diabetes, for which I used Insulin. I was nominated for another Oscar in 1982 for "My Favourite Year", where I played an ageing swashbuckling film star. Following my divorce in 1979, I had another child in 1983.
5. I won an Emmy in 1999 for my role in the mini-series "Joan of Arc". In 2005, I appeared on TV as the older version of "Casanova" in the series of the same name. In a TV interview in 2007, I stated that Eric Porter had been the biggest influence on me. I died on 14th December 2013 at Wellington Hospital in London aged 81. I was cremated, and my ashes are due to be taken to Connemara in West Ireland. Despite being nominated for 8 Oscars, I never won one, although I was given an Honorary award in 2002.

This Month's Joke

A ventriloquist walks into a Small welsh village and sees a local sitting on his patio with his dog. He figures he'll have a little fun, so he says to the man

'Mind if I talk to your dog?'

Villager: 'The dog doesn't talk, stupid.'

Ventriloquist: 'Hello dog, how's it going mate?'

Dog: 'Yeah, doin' all right.'

Villager: (look of extreme shock)

Ventriloquist: 'Is this man your owner?' (pointing at the Villager)

Dog: 'Yep'

Ventriloquist: 'How does he treat you?'

Dog: 'Yeah, real good. He walks me twice a day, feeds me great food and takes me to the lake once a week to play.'

Villager: (look of utter disbelief)

Ventriloquist: 'Mind if I talk to your horse?'

Villager: 'Uh, the horse doesn't talk either...I think?!?'

Ventriloquist: 'Hey horse, how's it going?'

Horse: 'Cool'

Villager: (absolutely dumbfounded)

Ventriloquist: 'Is this your owner?' (Pointing at the villager)

Horse: 'Yep'

Ventriloquist: How does he treat you?

Horse: 'Pretty good, thanks for asking. He rides me regularly, brushes me down often and keeps me in the shed to protect me from the elements.'

Villager: (total look of amazement)

Ventriloquist: 'Mind if I talk to your sheep?'

Villager:(in a panic)'The sheep's a f liar.....!'
